INFORMATION

COUNT ONE

(Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law)

The United States Attorney for the District of Maryland charges that:

On or about July 23, 2014, in the District of Maryland, the defendant,

ROBERT C. NALLEY,

while acting under color of law as a judge of the Circuit Court for Charles County, Maryland, willfully deprived Victim 1 of the right, secured by the Constitution and laws of the United States, not to be deprived of due process of law, which includes the right not to be subjected to the unreasonable use of force and the right not to be subjected to force amounting to punishment by a government official. Specifically, rather than invoke alternative measures, the defendant ordered that a deputy sheriff in Charles County Circuit Court activate a stun-cuff worn by Victim 1, a pro se criminal defendant, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 242.
