Mark J. Langer, Clerk United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit 333 Constitution Avenue, NW Room 5523 Washington, DC 20001

Re: Global Tel*Link, et al., No. 15-1461 & consolidated cases

Dear Mr. Langer

As the Court is aware, argument is set in these cases on February 6. I will be presenting the Commission's argument in this matter.

The Order under review was adopted by a 3-2 vote on October 22, 2015. Since then, there have been significant changes in the composition of the Commission. In particular, two commissioners who voted for the Order recently have left the Commission (Commissioner Rosenworcel on January 3, 2017, and Chairman Wheeler on January 20, 2017). On January 23, 2017, Commissioner Pai was designated FCC Chairman.

As a result of these changes in membership, the two Commissioners who dissented from the Order under review—on the grounds that, in specific respects, it exceeds the agency's lawful authority—now comprise a majority of the Commission. See Dissenting statement of Commissioner Pai; see also Dissenting statement of Commissioner O'Rielly.

In particular, a majority of the current Commission does not believe that the agency has the authority to cap intrastate rates under section 276 of the Act. I am therefore informing the parties and the Court that we are abandoning, and I am not authorized to defend at argument, the contention—contained in Section I of our brief—that the Commission has the authority to cap intrastate rates for inmate calling services.

If the Court reaches the issue, we are also abandoning, and I am also not authorized to defend, the argument (contained in a portion of section III.B of the brief) that the Commission lawfully considered industry-wide averages in setting the rate caps contained in the Order.

I will continue to defend at oral argument the significant remaining portions of the Order pursuant to the brief respondents filed in these cases.

Given that the government's position at argument has changed, the Commission has ceded ten minutes of its allotted argument time to Mr. Schwartzman, counsel for the "Wright Petitioner" intervenors, who will be prepared to defend all aspects of the Order.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David M. Gossett
