

mediation would be the preferred method of ADR. Counsel for the parties certify that their respective clients have been informed of the ADR procedures available in the Western District of Texas. The parties and counsel believe that should mediation be necessary, they have agreed to mediate this matter by January 31, 2017, and agreed to Bert Pluymen, as the mediator. Further, the parties and counsel will be able to mutually agree upon a specific mediator and date for any mediation in this case should the aforementioned date or mediator not be available. The parties submit that the mediator's fees will be split equally amongst each party.

Respectfully submitted,
